COURSE OVERVIEW

CHC33015 Certificate III in Individual Support is the newest qualification in the aged care industry.

This specialisation has been designed for individuals who want to work in the aged care industry either in a home and community care environment or an aged care facility. Students who complete this qualification are able to provide personal, in person care to the elderly in a variety of settings including people's homes, residential facilities, retirement villages, nursing homes and hospitals.

Australian Employment & Training Services (AEATS) provides a range of delivery methods. For those who like the structure and support of class-based learning, AEATS deliver a program facilitated by industry experts.

PRACTICAL PLACEMENT

All students must undertake 160 hours of practical placement within an Aged Care environment approved by AEATS. A dedicated Practical Placement Coordinator will arrange your placement on your behalf. Please see practical placement admission criteria for further information.

AIM OF THE COURSE

Our CHC33015 Certificate III in Individual Support course is a nationally recognised pathway into the aged care industry and is designed to develop multi-skilled workers for the broad range of services supporting ageing people in residential and community settings.

The course comprises of 13 units (7 Core and 6 Elective). Successful completion of this course requires the fulfillment of all 13 units of competency:

CORE UNITS

PRACTICAL PLACEMENT - ADMISSION CRITERIA

AEATS has a dedicated practical placement coordinator who will arrange your placement on your behalf.

- Students are required to undertake 160 hours of practical placement within an AEATS approved work environment.
- Placements are undertaken on a voluntary arrangement (if you're already employed in the industry, discuss the site and supervision requirements with the practical placement coordinator as assessments do take place during practical placement which will need to be observed by an AEATS Assessor and approved workplace supervisor)
- Placements are undertaken according to the facilities schedules, with most on rotating morning (7am-3.30pm) or afternoon (2.30pm-8.30pm) shifts. Rosters are controlled by the facility.
- Practical Placements are completed Monday to Friday over four (4) weeks, or until the 160 hours is completed.
- AEATS students will not participate in placement hours on weekends or public holidays.
- Facilities reserve the right to reject students who do not have a clear National Police Certificate.

NATIONAL POLICE CHECK - ADMISSION CRITERIA

Students are required to obtain a current National Police Certificate, showing a clear record to be accepted into most Aged Care Facilities. The facilities in which AEATS are associated reserve the right to reject students who do not have a clear National Police Certificate. Certificates are purchased via the Western Australian Police Force website and cost approximately $51.50. To ensure we provide the facility with a current certificate, AEATS students will be notified by their practical placement coordinator when to order their certificate (mid-way through classroom delivery). If in doubt, consult AEATS in relation to this matter prior to enrolment.
