CERTIFICATE III IN INDIVIDUAL SUPPORT (DISABILITY)

ABOUT YOUR COURSE

Our CHC33021 Certificate III in Individual Support (Disability) course is a nationally recognised pathway into the disability industry and is designed to develop multi-skilled workers for the broad range of services supporting people with disabilities in residential and community settings.

The CHC33021 Certificate III in Individual Support (Disability) is the newest qualification in the disability industry.

This specialisation has been designed for individuals who want to work in the disability industry either in a home and community care environment or a disability facility. Students who complete this qualification are able to provide personal, in person care to people with disabilities in a variety of settings including people's homes, residential facilities, community inclusion, nursing homes and hospitals. It is the base qualification required to work within the NDIS system.

Australian Employment & Training Services (AEATS) deliver a combination of classroom-based and ZOOM program with a work placement component facilitated by industry experts.

COURSE OVERVIEW

Course Structure: This course is delivered utilising a series of digital video recordings and an array of other online user friendly resources whilst having the added advantage of live support five (5) days per week as you require it. In addition to this you will be required to attend physical classroom delivery one day per week over the eighteen (18) weeks at one of our Classroom Support Locations. This course is designed for those students who want a structured program with actual live and physical support, but with the added flexibility of online learning.

Commencing: Weekly: throughout the year

Completion Times: Adhering to our DUE DATES policy, students can expect to complete the theory component of the course in eighteen (18) weeks (dependent on public holidays).

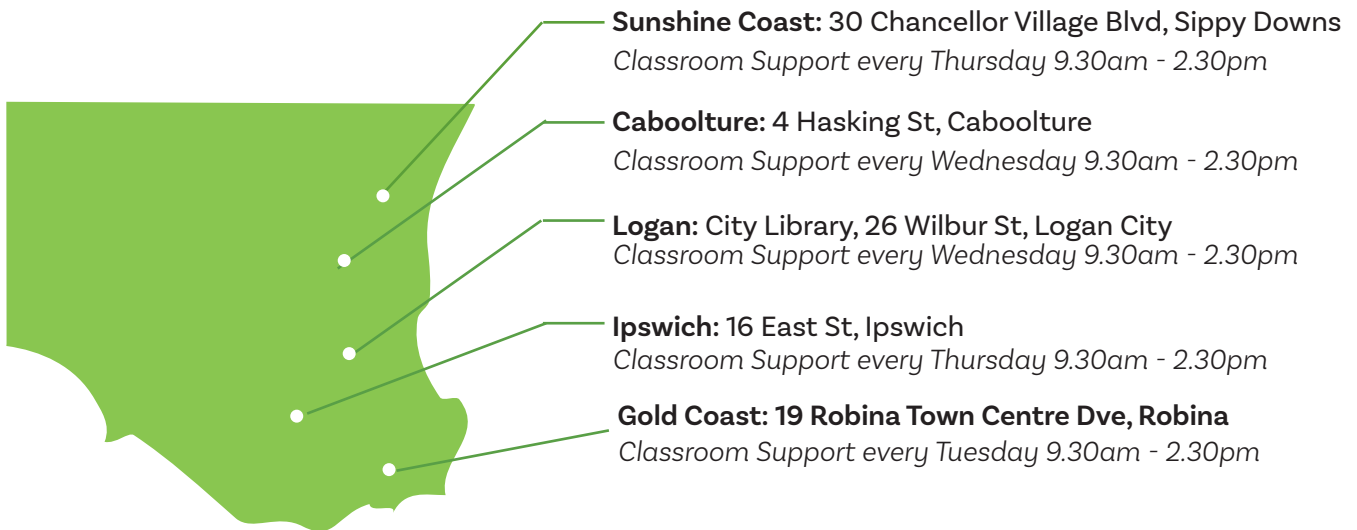

Plus Practical Placement: AEATS will coordinate your industry Practical Placement of 120 hours.

A NEW WAY OF LEARNING

Our program has been specially designed to capture the benefits of a TRAINER LED PROGRAM which is highly sought after by industry. Our expert trainers who we have sourced from the industry will prepare and support you to enter this exciting career well beyond completing your qualification.

PRACTICAL PLACEMENT

AEATS has a dedicated practical placement coordinator who will arrange your placement.

- Provide a copy of your current Influenza Vaccination record.
- Provide evidence of being double COVID vaccinated.
- Students are required to undertake 120 hours of practical placement within an AEATS approved work environment.
- Placements are undertaken on a voluntary arrangement (if you're already employed in the industry, discuss the site and supervision requirements with the practical placement coordinator as assessments do take place during practical placement which will need to be observed by an AEATS Assessor and approved workplace supervisor).

- Placements are commonly undertaken according to the facilities schedules, with most on rotating morning (7am-3.30pm) shifts. Rosters are controlled by the facility.
- Practical Placements are completed Monday to Friday over three (3) weeks, or until the 120 hours is completed.
- AEATS students will not participate in placement hours on weekends or public holidays.
- Facilities reserve the right to reject students who do not have a clear National Police Certificate
- Student will require long black pants, collared back shirt or black polo shirt and comfortable closed in shoes.

NATIONAL POLICE CHECK

Students are required to obtain a current National Police Certificate, showing a clear record to be accepted into most Disability Facilities. The facilities in which AEATS are associated reserve the right to reject students who do not have a clear National Police Certificate. To ensure we provide the facility with a current certificate, AEATS students will be notified by their practical placement coordinator when to order their certificate (mid-way through classroom delivery). If in doubt, consult AEATS in relation to this matter prior to enrolment. Students are required to procure their own National Police Clearance once instructed to and may incur a cost of approximately $64.50.
