CHC33015 CERTIFICATE III IN INDIVIDUAL SUPPORT (AGEING)

ABOUT YOUR COURSE

Our CHC33015 Certificate III in Individual Support (Ageing) course is a nationally recognised pathway into the aged care industry and is designed to develop multi-skilled workers for the broad range of services supporting ageing people in residential and community settings.

The CHC33015 Certificate III in Individual Support (Ageing) is the newest qualification in the aged care industry.

This specialisation has been designed for individuals who want to work in the aged care industry either in a home and community care environment or an aged care facility. Students who complete this qualification are able to provide personal, in person care to the elderly in a variety of settings including people’s homes, residential facilities, retirement villages, nursing homes and hospitals.

Australian Employment & Training Services (AEATS) offers a blended based delivery program consisting of live tutorials and support in addition to a work placement component facilitated by industry experts.

Whilst the course offers some flexibility to review recorded tutorial as well as downloaded Learner Guides, there are strict submission dates that learners must meet. Learners should be prepared to commit to at least three full days of learning per week and attend all mandatory workshops.

- Student will require long black pants, collared back shirt or black polo shirt and comfortable closed in shoes.
- Practical placement is a mandatory component of the program and must be successfully completed before competency can be achieved in most units.

NATIONAL POLICE CHECK

Students are required to obtain a current National Police Certificate, showing a clear record to be accepted into most Aged Care Facilities. The facilities in which AEATS are associated reserve the right to reject students who do not have a clear National Police Certificate. To ensure we provide the facility with a current certificate, AEATS students will be notified by their practical placement coordinator when to order their certificate (mid-way through classroom delivery). If in doubt, consult AEATS in relation to this matter prior to enrolment. Students are required to procure their own National Police Clearance once instructed to and may incur a cost of approximately $51.50.

PRACTICAL PLACEMENT

AEATS has a dedicated practical placement coordinator who will arrange your placement.

- Provide a copy of your current Influenza Vaccination record.
- Provide evidence of being double COVID vaccinated.
- Students are required to undertake 160 hours of practical placement within an AEATS approved work environment.
- Placements are undertaken on a voluntary arrangement (if you're already employed in the industry, discuss the site and supervision requirements with the practical placement coordinator as assessments do take place during practical placement which will need to be observed by an AEATS Assessor and approved workplace supervisor)

"I did the course and practical placement then updated my cv, then took my cv to all the aged care facilities I wanted to work for and I got an interview and the job. At 52 I am happy." - Leighanne
